Superior Court of Los Angeles County Reiterates Warning of Ongoing Traffic Scam

Spam Texts Claiming Toll and Traffic Violations Requesting Payment Are Not From the Court

April 2, 2026

The Superior Court of Los Angeles County continues to receive reports of spam texts, often including a link or QR code for payment, that have been sent to the public informing them that they have a traffic ticket or toll violation that they must pay with the Court. The public is advised that these texts do not come from the Superior Court of Los Angeles County. The Court will never ask for payment by text message; please do not click or scan any of these links.

The Court has created a dedicated Scam Alert page on its website, where images of reported scam texts have been added to a "Scam Library." The public is encouraged to check the page for more information.

Verifying Official Correspondence from the Court

To confirm whether you have an actual ticket or case:

- Go directly to the official court website at www.lacourt.ca.gov and select Traffic Citations.
- Search for your citation information using your citation number or driver's license number.
- You may also call the Court's Traffic Call Center at 213-633-6300 or the law enforcement agency using the phone number listed on their official website.

Please only use the options indicated above to confirm or resolve your traffic citation matters.

Traffic Citation Alert Notification System

If you have previously signed up for the Court's Traffic Citation Alert notification system, please rest assured that your information was not compromised, and the only notice you will receive will direct you to the Court's web page once the citation you may have received from a law enforcement officer has been filed with the court.
